

87 Leidersburg 2004 Vintner's Reserve Sauvignon Blanc (Coastal Region); $23. Super clean and fresh, with pineapple, pink grapefruit and ample minerality. Quite snappy and tasty, with mostly tropical fruit flavors and grassy notes. Graceful, with a light to medium palate feel. Imported by Hemingway and Hale.

BEST BUYS

84 Gôiya 2003 Merlot (Western Cape); $7. Light red fruits with herb accents mark this value red. Not sweet or jammy, it's rather more like a petit-chateau Bordeaux. Has some tang and tannins, and it's a refreshing change from other soft, often cloying, inexpensive Merlots. Imported by Hemingway and Hale.
