

86 Gôiya 2004 Cabernet Sauvignon (Western Cape); $8. Cherry and dark berry signify this wine, both in the nose and in the mouth. A good quaffer, with just enough tannin and wood spice to brighten it up. Imported by Hemingway & Hale. Best Buy. —M.D.

85 Gôiya 2004 Merlot (Western Cape); $8. This is what easy-drinking Merlot is all about. Chocolate, cassis and eraser form a nice bouquet, while vanilla and tobacco meld with red fruit and cassis in the mouth. Stock up, then drink up. Imported by Hemingway & Hale. Best Buy. —M.D.

83 Serengeti 2003 Pinotage (Coastal Region); $13. This simple wine has straightforward Beaujolais-like aromas, with grapy flavors and sour lemon flavors on the finish. Imported by Hemingway & Hale. —M.D.

BEST BUYS

86 Gôiya 2004 Cabernet Sauvignon (Western Cape); $8. Cherry and dark berry signify this wine, both in the nose and in the mouth. A good quaffer, with just enough tannin and wood spice to brighten it up. Imported by Hemingway & Hale.

85 Gôiya 2004 Merlot (Western Cape); $8. This is what easy-drinking Merlot is all about. Chocolate, cassis and eraser form a nice bouquet, while vanilla and tobacco meld with red fruit and cassis in the mouth. Stock up, then drink up. Imported by Hemingway & Hale.